FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2003

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, since my name was mentioned, (laugh) I thought maybe I'd get up and speak. A little bit of history, because I think when we were doing the congressional redistricting, so forth, I had contacts early on with Congressman Bereuter, and I think if you would look at it, Senator Mossey's district, more of it is in Senator...I think is in Senator Bereuter's district than it is in Senator Lee Terry's district. So I think what we...what the Rules Committee has come up with I think is a good proposal because it does...and the Lincoln people have always treated me and Senator Mossey well when I was a part of them, so I think that...but I think your district is actually more of Senator Bereuter's, which is in the 1st Congressional District rather than in the 2nd Congressional District, so I guess I would oppose the...this amendment.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Hartnett. Senator Baker.

SENATOR BAKER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. I want to go over just a portion of what we've discussed here again. As I said, and I think Senator Stuhr conveyed this very well, we were two new members to the Rules Committee and, honestly, we were under the gun as far as time because we needed to get these things moved. But...and I apologize to the two people here that are being moved out of their old caucus districts. I did not talk to either one of them. As it turns out, we should have, certainly, and I won't let that happen again. But this is not earth-shattering, what this amendment proposes. It's simply letting these people stay where they are. And Senator Preister made a good point. It's been good work, but we can do this to the point where nobody is unhappy with their caucus assignment. Simply by adopting this amendment we've taken care of the entire project, and apparently no one has any other considerations as far as individual senators moving from one caucus group to another. So, by adopting this amendment, we've done it all. We have all 49 senators, and I haven't heard anybody voice an opinion otherwise that they're not happy with their caucus. The two that are being moved are saying they would like to stay where they are, so by adopting this amendment and moving on we have done a...what I'd say a very good job. We have no
